Hon. David Kilgour was a long-standing Member of Canadian Parliament, former Secretary of State (Asian Pacific), former chairman for Human Rights Committee, he was a senior agent of the Attorney General and a constitutional advisor to the Government of Alberta 1972-79, and Crown Attorney for Dauphin Judicial District (Manitoba) 1971-72.

As a long-standing Member of Parliament, David Kilgour has been the Chairman for the Human Rights Subcommittee of the House of Commons of Canada, and a former Secretary of State of the Government of Canada for the Asia Pacific region.

Before he became a Parliamentarian, he was a Crown prosecutor. Hon. David Kilgour has been concerned about human rights in China and contributed in a lot of ways in his position to advance the cause. He was also Co-Chair of the Parliamentary Friends of Tibet until January 2006.

Since April 2006, Mr. David Kilgour and Mr. David Matas embarked an independent investigation that Falun Gong practitioners are victims of live organ harvesting throughout China. The allegation is that organ harvesting is inflicted on unwilling Falun Gong practitioners at a wide variety of locations, pursuant to a systematic policy, in large numbers.

Mr. David Matas.
