

EP votes on the new European Commission

HOW TO ELECT THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Check out our infographic to find out how the European Commission gets elected

MEPs decide today whether to approve the new European Commission led by Jean-Claude Juncker.

From 29 September to 20 October, EP committees questioned all candidate commissioners during three-hour long hearings to assess their competence.

For a summary of the hearings, check out our special page with videos, images and background information. Search for comments on Twitter with the #EPhearings2014 hashtag.

On 22 October, president-elect Juncker presents his team of commissioners to the Parliament and discussed the incoming Commission's working programme with MEPs.

After the debate, MEPs vote whether to approve or reject the European Commission as a whole. If elected, the new Commission starts its five-year term on 1 November.

You can watch the debate and vote live on our website via this link.

For more information about how the new European Commission gets elected, check out our infographic.

Further information

Summary of the hearings

Towards a new European Commission

Watch the plenary session live

Juncker Commission

Juncker Commission's 10 priorities