

16.6.2020

A9-0117/2

Amendment 2

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, João Ferreira, Sandra Pereira, Helmut Scholz
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 8 a (new)

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

8a. Calls for the assurance and commitment that the rights of EU Member State citizens living in the UK and UK citizens living in the EU should be maintained, namely: the right of residence, the right to equal treatment, the right of access to public healthcare and education services, the right to family regroup, the right to mobility, the rights to vote and stand in local elections, the portability of social security benefits and the right to mutual recognition of academic qualifications and professional qualifications; calls on both parties to establish mechanisms to monitor changes and difficulties that may be experienced by EU Member State citizens living in the UK and British citizens living in the EU, with the aim of identifying situations of legal uncertainty and resolving them;

Or. en

16.6.2020

A9-0117/3

Amendment 3

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 36 a (new)

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

36a. Calls on the European Union to study the impact of gender on the future UK-EU trading agreement; calls for the incorporation of effective clauses and a sanctioning mechanism to achieve gender equality and guarantee women's rights and empowerment; calls for the promotion of principles of internationally recognised standards, international agreements and UN Conventions, especially the Istanbul Convention, and commitments on girls' and women's rights, gender equality, gender mainstreaming and the empowerment of women in these agreements, based on the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, the SDGs, CEDAW and the fundamental ILO Conventions; calls on the EU and the UK to include the gender impact of EU trade policy and the future agreement between the UK and the EU in ex-ante and ex-post impact assessments and to ensure that the trade agreements do not exacerbate existing inequalities or create new ones;

Or. en

Amendment 4Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

ReportA9-0117/2020*Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendationParagraph 148Proposal for a recommendation*

148. Recalls that both the EU and the UK share principles, values and interests; stresses that it is in both sides' interest to maintain an ambitious, close and lasting cooperation respecting the autonomy of the EU in the form of a common framework on foreign and security policy based on Article 21 TEU and taking into account the UN Charter and NATO in the following areas:

- (a) the promotion of peace;
- (b) a shared approach towards common security challenges, and global stability including in the European neighbourhood;
- (c) the promotion of a rules-based international order;
- (d) the consolidation of democracy and rule of law;
- (e) the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms;
- (f) the promotion of global prosperity, sustainable development, combatting climate change and mitigating biodiversity loss;

Amendment

148. Recalls that both the EU and the UK share principles, values and interests; stresses that it is in both sides' interest to maintain an ambitious, close and lasting cooperation respecting the autonomy of the EU in the form of a common framework on foreign and security policy based on Article 21 TEU and taking into account the UN Charter in the following areas:

- (a) the promotion of democracy and peace;
- (b) a shared approach towards common human security challenges, and global stability including in the European neighbourhood;
- (c) the promotion of a rules-based international order;
- (d) the consolidation of democracy and rule of law;
- (e) the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms;
- (f) the promotion of global prosperity, sustainable development, combatting climate change and mitigating biodiversity loss;
- (g) the achievement of intersectional and gender equality and the protection of women and LGBTQI+ rights;

(h) disarmaments and non-proliferation;

Or. en

16.6.2020

A9-0117/5

Amendment 5

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 149 a (new)

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

149a. Recognises that gender equality is a prerequisite for efficient management of climate challenges; recalls that meaningful and equal participation of women in decision-making bodies and EU, national and local level climate policy and action is vital for achieving long-term climate goals in the framework of the UK-EU future agreement;

Or. en

Amendment 6Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

ReportA9-0117/2020*Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendationParagraph 152Proposal for a recommendation*

152. Calls on both the EU and UK to strengthen international peace and stability including by developing joint strategies to strengthen UN peacekeeping efforts; calls on both parties to promote the culture of peace and dialogue as a means of conflict prevention, conflict management and conflict resolution, women and gender rights; supports continuing existing cooperation in those areas; calls for systematic preferential cooperation in peacekeeping operations; calls for enhanced cooperation between the EU and UK on matters linked to democratic development, reform processes and democratic parliamentary practices in third countries, including election observation;

Amendment

152. Calls on both the EU and UK to strengthen international peace and stability including by developing joint strategies to strengthen UN peacekeeping efforts; calls on both parties to promote the culture of peace and dialogue as the priority and the main strategy for conflict prevention, conflict management and conflict resolution, women and gender rights; supports continuing existing cooperation in those areas; calls for systematic preferential cooperation in peacekeeping operations; calls on the EU and the UK to take an active role in the peaceful resolution of major conflicts in today's world, boosting an international mechanism for conflict resolution through dialogue, in full alignment with UN Resolution 1325; stresses that political and financial support based on constructive mediation and the peaceful and democratic resolution of conflicts should be promoted; believes that no mission contrary to international law and without democratic approval should be launched; considers that consultations in national parliaments on funding and participation in international and European operations should be driven, always in compliance with international law and with UN authorisation; calls for enhanced cooperation between the EU and UK on matters linked to democratic development, reform processes and democratic parliamentary practices in third countries, including election observation;

Or. en

16.6.2020

A9-0117/7

Amendment 7

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 153

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

153. States the EU's strong interest in such a foreign affairs and security partnership, given mutual benefits resulting from the UK's and France's permanent seat in the Security Council, UK's and EU members' highly performant diplomatic service, and the fact that the UK possesses the most powerful armed forces in Europe; deleted

Or. en

16.6.2020

A9-0117/8

Amendment 8

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023 (INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 156

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

156. Stresses that it is in the mutual interest of the EU and the UK, amplified by their geographical proximity, to cooperate on the development of effective and genuinely interoperable defence capabilities, including within the European Defence Agency, with which an administrative arrangement should be concluded, and to continue the highly valuable partnerships within NATO and EU programmes on defence and external security, Galileo cyber-security programmes Galileo cyber-security programmes and the fight against targeted disinformation campaigns and cyberattacks, as the current COVID-19 pandemic has illustrated; recalls that, as regards the participation to the Public Regulated Service of Galileo, a specific agreement is both possible and necessary; notes also that, as regards the upcoming European Defence Fund, the UK could be associated under the conditions set for third countries; calls on both the EU and UK to develop a joint approach to standardisation of defence technology;

deleted

Or. en

16.6.2020

A9-0117/9

Amendment 9

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 158

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

158. Recalls that a number of restrictive measures (sanctions regimes) are currently in force in the UK under EU legislation; recognises the effective use of sanctions for human rights, democracy, rule of law in accordance with the UN Charter; underlines the fact that the UK will still be bound to apply UN sanctions regimes following its withdrawal and calls for the UK to continue aligning its sanctions policy with the EU; and calls for the establishment of a proper coordination mechanism for sanctions between both parties, and close cooperation on sanctions in global fora, in order to maximise their impact and to ensure convergence and that mutual interests are pursued and met in the promotion of common values; deleted

Or. en

16.6.2020

A9-0117/10

Amendment 10

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz

on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 158 a (new)

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

158a. Stresses the importance of global justice and solidarity; calls on the EU and the UK to put an immediate end to the sanctions and economic blockades applied to third countries in order to facilitate their efforts to assist their populations and deal with the health and economic crisis resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic;

Or. en

16.6.2020

A9-0117/11

Amendment 11

Idoia Villanueva Ruiz, Helmut Scholz
on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A9-0117/2020

Kati Piri, Christophe Hansen

European Parliament recommendation on the negotiations for a new partnership with the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (2020/2023(INI))

Proposal for a recommendation

Paragraph 159

Proposal for a recommendation

Amendment

159. Encourages the UK to participate in the relevant EU agencies and take a prominent role in EU crisis management operations and in CSDP missions and operations, including in humanitarian and rescue missions, conflict prevention and peacekeeping, military advice and assistance and post-conflict stabilization as well as in projects under Permanent Structured Cooperation (PESCO), where invited to participate, and, stresses that such participation should be subject to stringent conditions respecting the decision making autonomy of the EU as well as the sovereignty of the UK, the principle of balanced rights and obligations and based on effective reciprocity, including a fair and appropriate financial contribution; calls on the Commission and the European External Action Service to regularly inform Parliament concerning the process of political dialogue with the UK and on the main aspects of the information exchanges on CSDP and crisis management;

deleted

Or. en